SIBLEY NEEDS A NEW LEASH ON LIFE

6-month-old pit bull pup overcomes rough start and learns to forgive

WALNUT CREEK, California – October 4, 2013 – Cruelly and tightly muzzled 24 hours a day to prevent normal puppy chewing, Sibley’s beautiful face is marred by scars. Her ears, cropped with scissors in a home-crop job, bear the scar tissue of this crude attempt to make her look “tough.” We can only imagine the unbearable pain this sweet, sensitive pup endured at the hands of her previous owner before she was discarded at the public shelter and rescued by ARF.

Fortunately, Sibley’s scars appear to be only on the outside. She has quickly become a staff and volunteer favorite at ARF, melting into any available lap, giving shy kisses, and grunting happily when she’s on the receiving end of a good belly rub. The calm, cuddly sweetheart is ready to leave her old life behind and be cherished and loved as part of a family, as she’s always deserved.

Sibley needs a home. She’s waiting at ARF, located at 2890 Mitchell Drive in Walnut Creek, California. For more information on Sibley and how to adopt, visit www.arf.net.

ARF saves the lives of dogs and cats who have run out of time at public shelters, giving them loving care and another chance at life until a new home can be found. ARF’s innovative People Connect programs strengthen the human-animal bond for children, the elderly, and other people in need. ARF allows people to experience the unconditional love and acceptance of dogs and cats to fulfill our mission of “People Rescuing Animals...Animals Rescuing People®”
